

THE FOUNDATIONS OF NVC....SAVE THE DATES!

Five Consecutive Sundays, September
18 - October 16, 2022 2:00 -4:30 PM

Learning, Practicing, and Integrating Nonviolent Communication is a lifetime practice of awareness! It starts with learning what NVC is while living within a cultural background that isn't! It can be a radical new appreciation and choice of how now to live. If you're interested in creating the kind of connection with yourself and others inducing the natural giving of the heart we long to access, please join me this fall for this intensive exploration.

Objectives for this course:

- Understanding the concepts and distinctions of NVC.
- Applying the practices, principles and components of NVC to 'real life'.
- Learning and practicing the Key Assumptions and Intentions of NVC.

The measurement tool available to us during the 5 weeks will be the Self-Assessment Matrix from Pathways to Liberation. You can find it at this link for your personal use.
